DIAZ HEADS NEW MEXICAN REVOLT

HE HAS A STRONG BACKING

Small Company But Well Armed Lands and Will Strike Carranza

Great Supplies of Arms and Munitions Purchased and Will Be Shipped to Caribbean Sea Port

Washington, March 31.—Gen. Felix Diaz, nephew of the former president of Mexico, has landed in Mexico at the head of an expedition which is planning to start immediately a revolution against the Carranza de facto government. The expedition went ashore near the boundary lines between the states of Tabasco and Campeche, according to private information that reached interior circles in Washington. The party is said to be small, but composed of well trained men with sufficient arms and ammunition.

General Diaz and his followers have assurances that they will have the support of military forces of Oaxaca, which borders the Isthmus of Tehuantepec and is his native state.

The Diaz movement has strong backing. Prominent Mexican expatriates are known to be interested. The agents of General Diaz have bought one of the largest shipments of arms and ammunition obtained in this country for any Latin American revolutionary movement in the last five years.

U. S. MARINES LAND IN CHINA TO QUIET UPRISING

Peking, April 3.—Marines from the United States gunboat Wilmington went ashore Sunday at Swatow, where the Chinese troops have declared their independence of the central government. The detachment reconnoitered and found the city quiet. A Chinese gunboat also is anchored off Swatow, which is a seaport of Kwangtung province, 120 miles south of Amoy.

ZEPPELINS RAID SCOTLAND COAST

59 Killed and 117 Injured in Raids on Three Consecutive Nights

LARGEST ATTACK SINCE JAN. 31

Sixteen Killed and Hundred Injured in Saturday Night's Raid—Greatest Loss of Life in Any Attack

London, April 3.—The coast of Scotland and the northern and southern counties of England were attacked by Zeppelins Sunday night, according to an official announcement by the secretary of war.

London, April 3.—At least sixteen persons were killed and about 100 others injured by the explosion of bombs dropped in another raid of Zeppelin dirigible balloons over the northern coast of England, Saturday night.

"Eight dwelling houses were demolished and a serious fire was caused in a French publishing shop.

With the exception of the big air raid of January 31, when the casualties were sixty-seven persons killed and 117 injured, the Zeppelin raids of Friday and Saturday nights caused greater loss of life than any previous aerial attack this year.

The total casualties for the two nights, according to an official report, were fifty-nine persons killed and 166 wounded.

SANTA FE OPEN TO CONSIDER DEMANDS OF TRAINMEN

Topeka, March 31.—In an answer to the demands which were presented by the so-called Big Four trainmen's unions, C. W. Kouns, general manager of the eastern lines of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, gave notice for the company that in connection with the proposals of the trainmen there shall be open for consideration and disposition those provisions in the schedules or practices which now give the members of the allied unions an opportunity for double compensation.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS KANSAN ON BORDER

Junction City, March 31.—Word was received here that Sergeant Theodore Schrimyer, Sixth field artillery, had been accidentally shot and killed at Nogales, Ariz. He had been stationed at Fort Riley for many years. He is survived by his wife, who lives in this city. The body will be brought here for burial.

FARM BUREAUS SAVE MONEY FOR FARMERS

Manhattan, March 31.—Since 1912, when the first farm bureau in Kansas was organized in Leavenworth county, the work has grown so rapidly that eleven counties now have farm bureaus with agricultural agents at work, according to reports received at the extension department of the Kansas State Agricultural college here. It is estimated in these reports that more than $194,000 was saved for Kansas farmers in 1915 through the efforts of these bureaus in fighting hog cholera.

STUDENTS IN NEAR-RIOT IN ANTI-MILITARY MIXUP

New York, March 31.—The appearance of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood today to speak at a meeting of students of the college of the City of New York on preparedness, was the occasion of an attempted demonstration of "anti-militarists" among the students, and the rough handling of several who interrupted his address.

SIGNAL MEN NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR N. Y. CENTRAL WRECK

Cleveland, Ohio, April 1.—That all three of the New York Central trains that were piled up in a wreck at Amherst, Ohio, on Wednesday morning, costing the lives of at least 28 persons and injuries to more than forty, were racing through a dense fog in an effort to make up lost time, that the signal block system was defective on this occasion and had been similarly deficient on numerous occasions during the past winter, and that no particular man was to blame for the wreck, was the outstanding features of evidence taken at the first formal session of the representatives of the interstate commerce commission.

WEDS GIRL HE RESCUED FROM COLUMBUS RAID

Columbus, March 31.—Fred Ivy, hero in the battle with Villa's bandits here, is to be rewarded by the heart and hand of the young woman whose life he saved. He married Mrs. Lulu Rabbitt last night and all Columbus celebrated the marriage.

Mrs. Rabbitt has lived here with relatives. Ivy was, until two months ago, a sergeant in the Thirteenth cavalry. When his term expired he opened a restaurant. The morning the Villistas raided the town Ivy killed two of them as they were about to drag Mrs. Rabbitt from her bed. He led her to a place of safety and returned to the fight.

MEN TO KANSAS CITY POOR

Kansas City, April 1.—There is a seed famine in Washington.

George M. Pfeiffer, Kansas City, Kan., received a message to that effect this morning from Joseph K. Taggart, representative in congress.

Mr. Pfeiffer is secretary of the Associated Charities of Kansas City, Kan., and asked the congressman for seeds for the poor of that city. The reply was that none would be sent out this year.

115 PHYSICIANS AND NURSES GO DOWN WITH SHIP

Petrograd, April 1.—The sinking of the Russian hospital ship Portugal in the Black sea is thus described in a dispatch received from M. Golubeff, delegates general of the Red Cross with the Russian army: "At 8:30 o'clock last night near Shatie, our hospital ship Portugal, at anchor, was sunk by an enemy submarine which fired two torpedoes from a range of sixty yards. After the second torpedo, which struck the engine room, the ship sank in less than a minute."

ZEPPELINS RAID ENGLAND AGAIN

Five Airships Drop Ninety Bombs on Eastern Counties

GERMANS TAKE MALINCOURT

French Repel Teuton Offensive in Eastern Section Near Le Mort Homme—Counter Attack Repulsed Also

London, April 1.—Five Zeppelin airships raided the eastern counties of England last night, according to an official announcement just issued. Thus far it has been ascertained that about ninety bombs were dropped by the invaders.

Having captured the court of Malancourt, the Germans have now shifted their offensive eastward to the sector around the famous Le Mort Homme. With heavy forces the Teutons have attacked the French line between Hill 295 and Le Mort Homme, and succeeded in entering French first line trenches. A vigorous counter attack by the French almost immediately expelled the invaders and another attack by the Teutons delivered later is declared by Paris to have been put down completely.

Gets $3000 for Husband's Death
Marysville, April 1.—Through R. L. Helvering, attorney for the Union Pacific railroad company, Mrs. Max Weismiller made settlement with the railroad company for the death of her husband, who was killed in the railroad yards Wednesday night, March 22. The company paid Mrs. Weismiller $3000.

BROADEN FIELD OF CHOLERA ERADICATION CAMPAIGN

Hiawatha, March 30.—That the campaign for the eradication of hog cholera under Dr. B. W. Murphy, government expert located at Marysville will be extended to Brown as well as Nemaha county, is the text of a letter received here today from Congressman D. R. Anthony, Jr. When the work was extended to Nemaha county several requests and petitions were sent to Washington from Brown county, as this county has lost more from hog cholera last year than any other county in the state. Two additional veterinary inspectors are to be assigned to north-east Kansas by the secretary of agriculture.
